

Volunteer & Committee Member Callout Create What You Crave

Create What You Crave is seeking passionate and community-minded volunteers to support our growing work. Whether you're an arts lover, creative professional, or just want to give back, we welcome your voice and talents.

Mission: The mission of Create What You Crave is to amplify the voice of local creatives and offer space for connection and inspiration. We produce events and media with the intention to build a community for creatives and advocate for the arts.

Vision: Create What You Crave envisions a thriving, connected creative community where artists and creatives of all disciplines feel seen, supported, and inspired. By fostering collaboration, storytelling, and advocacy, we aim to make creativity an integral part of everyday life, shaping a more vibrant and expressive culture in Carmel and beyond.

Volunteers and committee members will contribute ideas, energy, and support our mission and vision across the following key areas:
